A photograph of a white peony flower in bloom, positioned inside a protective enclosure made of bundled straw. The enclosure is supported by two vertical straw pillars and has a dark horizontal band across the middle. The base of the enclosure is filled with loose straw. A small wooden sign with a dark background and white text is placed in front of the plant. The background is a rough, grey stone wall. The scene is brightly lit, casting shadows on the straw and stone.

十代椿

A large, double, white peony flower is the central focus, nestled in a basket of straw. The flower has many layers of petals, some showing a slight yellowish tint. To its right, a small wooden sign with a dark background and white Japanese characters reads '連鶴' (Renzaku). The basket is lined with straw, and the background is a woven bamboo or straw wall. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the petals and the surrounding straw.
